note contd

Maha Begum alias Begum Sab, wife of Nawab Mir Ishaff Ali Khan, member of the Managing Committee of the Prince Gulam Mohomed's Charity Fund, has now petitioned stating that she herself is related by blood to Tippu Sultan her grandfather being the Sultan's materna l uncle, that she is in indigent circumstances and unable to maintain her family and prays that she and her daughter named Maulana Bi may each be granted an allowance of Rs 3/- from the Charity Fund. In the petition she refers to an ~~earlier~~ endorsement No 760, dated 27th July 1906 issued from this Office when husband informing him that the President of the Charity Fund has been directed to provide him and three other members of his family at Rs 3/- each in the Charity. She now complains that, in contravention of that order, the members of the Charity Fund Committee have intimated to her husband that no allces from the charity fund can be granted Whin

It is submitted that the allegations of the petitioner are true The Govt had, in their Pro: No 5922 dated 27th June 1906, ordered that the Committee might recommend allowances to certain 4 members of Nawab Mir Ssuff Ali Khan's family, when vacancies occurred But the Managing members of the Committee having intimated to this Office that they were not in favor of giving any of the vacant allowances to Nawab Mir Ssuff Ali Khan, and recommended others instead, the 2nd Councillor got ~~the case~~ together the members of the Committee at Mysore and ordered as follows:- "I have ascertained all the facts of the case. The nominations made by the Committee maybe approved." (Vide page 20 of this Note), and orders were accordingly issued Mir Ssuff Ali Khan however Kept on petitioning

Muzrai Dy's remarks:—

Nawab Mir Essuf Ali Khan asked for 4 stipends from this Charity at Rs 3 each per mensem on behalf of 4 members of his family. Although the Govt were inclined to grant the request, the committee of the charity were against the measure and therefore the vacancies then existing were otherwise disposed of.

His wife now asks for two
